

Instron® Accessories eCoupon – Terms and Conditions

The Instron Accessories eCoupon program entitles customers to a discount on additional accessories when they purchase a new Instron system. The discount is available within the system's standard warranty period after it has been installed.

The following terms and conditions apply, and may be changed without prior notice.

- The eCoupon becomes active once the registration has been completed.
- Entitlement to the eCoupon shall be determined entirely at the discretion of Instron.
- Entitlement to the eCoupon may be withdrawn at any time during its validity for credit control or other financial reasons relating to non-payment of outstanding debt.
- Coupons are valid for a maximum of 13 months after the shipment date of the system. This includes systems purchased with extended warranty.
- One coupon is provided per new system ordered. A system is defined as any machine or electronic retrofit from the Electromechanical, Dynamic Systems, Impact or IPG/SATEC™ product lines. Hardness testers are specifically excluded from this program.
- The coupon may be redeemed against any standard accessory catalog number appearing in the current Electromechanical, Dynamic Systems, Impact or IPG/SATEC™ price lists. The coupon cannot be redeemed against Hardness accessories or Shore hardness testers.
- The coupon discount applies to all qualifying items on a single purchase order.
- The coupon cannot be redeemed against service items (calibration, training, service parts, etc).
- The coupon cannot be redeemed against items already under a promotional program.
- The coupon cannot be redeemed against custom products.
- Only one coupon will be accepted per purchase order.
- A coupon may only be used once
- The coupon discount will be applied to the ex-works list prices operative at the time of order.
- Other charges such as packing, handling, freight, duty etc. will be applied without discount.
- A minimum order value before discount of $500 applies.
- Standard Instron terms and conditions apply to all orders.
- The eCoupon program does not apply to new systems purchased before December 1, 2007
